

SEEKING PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVES

NSCASLP is inviting applications from the public to serve as public representatives on the regulator's statutory committees!

We value and seek diverse perspectives. Applications are encouraged from African Nova Scotians and other racially visible persons, Indigenous/Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Volunteer public representatives play a crucial role in ensuring accountability, transparency, and representation of public interests within regulating health professional practices.

SKILLS & QUALIFICATION

The public representative has:

- a commitment to engage with the role
- the ability to analyze information and reason
- a commitment to foster inclusivity
- collaboration skills
- Integrity
- objectivity
- the ability to communicate effectively

NOVA SCOTIA COLLEGE OF AUDIOLOGISTS
AND SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGISTS

RESPONSIBILITIES

Public representatives participate in committee meetings that address registration decisions and health care professionals' conduct. They also provide feedback from the general public's perspective to ensure that public concerns are heard and considered in health professional regulatory processes.

TRAINING

Online, self-paced modules will be provided to support public representatives for the committee appointment.

HOW TO APPLY

You can apply through an online application form. Please scan this QR code to access the application form.

